

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order. Members, please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Walter Hines Page said: 'There is one thing better than good government, and that is government in which all the people have a part'. Let us pray. O Lord, our God, direct the wills of the peoples of the State of Illinois so that they may seek to care and share in the legislative process of their government. Direct them, O Lord, to be concerned with more than the selection and election of their Representatives by continuing their interest and participation in the issues of the day. May the Members of this House of Representatives give sympathetic ear to their needs and to their plight and may they value such wishes in the light of Thy Divine Wisdom. May all that is done here be to the glory of Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Roll Call for attendance. Representative Lucco."

Lucco: "Yes. Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I rise for an introduction. Representative Dawson has been holding a group from his District, the 30th District, they're seated in the balcony. They are from St. Francis DeSales, eighth grade class. Students from St. Francis DeSales."

Speaker Redmond: "Message from the Senate...."

Clerk O'Brien: "A message...."

Speaker Redmond: Representative Collins."

Collins: "Mr. Speaker, I know that Representative Lucco didn't do it on purpose but there are two other Representatives in that district; I happen to be one of them and Representative Giglio the other. And we are happy to welcome the kids from our District also."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lucco."

Lucco: "My apologies to two of the finest other Representatives...."

Speaker Redmond: "What were their names again? What were their names again? The other two."

Lucco: "Collins and....(unintelligible)."

Speaker Redmond: "What was that first one?"

Lucco: "Collins and Giglio."

Speaker Redmond: "Okay. Messages from the Senate."

Speaker Redmond: "Introduction, First Reading."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 2375, James C. Taylor. A Bill for an Act making an appropriation for work-study programs for high school students living in areas of high unemployment. First Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Consent Calendar, Second Reading, Second Day."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 2053. A Bill for an Act to amend the Illinois Highway Code. Second Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Any Amendments....Third Reading. Representative Madigan, are there any excused absences on the Democratic side? Representative Madigan is at Capparelli's desk."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, would the record show that Representative Kornowicz is excused because of illness. And that Representative Kozubowski is excused because of the birth of a baby boy."

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Hearing none, the record so show. Representative Ryan, do you have any excused absences? How about Cunningham, is he here today?"

Ryan: "Cunningham is here everyday, Mr. Speaker. Representative McAvoy is absent due to illness."

Speaker Redmond: "May Representative McAvoy's absence be excused? Hearing no objections the record will so show. Consent Calendar Third Reading. Representative D. L. Houlihan."

Houlihan, D.L.: "I wanted...I wonder, Mr. Speaker, if we could hold that order of business for at least....fifteen minutes until we finish going through all the files on Consent Calendar, Third Reading?"

Speaker Redmond: "Very reluctantly but the caller that...445. Agreed Resolutions. We have Judiciary, Revenue, Executive, Elementary and Secondary Education that are going to be meeting, so we're going to have a very abbreviated floor Session. Agreed Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution #195, Yourell. 196, McClain.

197, McClain, Kent. 198, Lynn Martin. 199, Porter. 200, Brady.
201, Polk. 202, Polk. 203, Polk."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Jacobs, for what purpose do you arise?"

Jacobs: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I'd like to suspend the appropriate rule where yesterday when I asked that House Bill 316 for leave to hear it in the Subcommittee, which we did, and I find out it was not posted for tomorrow. And I'd like to have leave to have House Bill 316 heard in Rules and Regulations Veterans' Affairs tomorrow."

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave?"

Jacobs: "And can I make one other announcement regarding...."

Speaker Redmond: "Proceed."

Jacobs: "A Committee Meeting of Labor and Commerce? Will be held at 8 a.m. in the morning in Room 114 and we will hear testimony and witnesses on all collective bargaining, workmen's comp and the unemployment insurance. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I didn't hear what the Gentleman asked for leave for, could you tell me what that was?"

Speaker Redmond: "Will you repeat, Representative Jacobs?"

Jacobs: "I asked for leave to hear House Bill 316, which we had a Subcommittee Meeting on last night, that had previously been posted but had erroneously had been left out for tomorrow's meeting. It is Representative Cunningham's Bill."

Ryan: "What is the Bill, Representative...."

Jacobs: "It's ear piercing."

Ryan: "I wish you would have talked to me about it, we could have eliminated it."

Jacobs: "I just got the notice on the phone now, that it had not been posted. I will talk to you about it."

Ryan: "All right, I have no objection."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi. Does the Gentleman have leave? There were no objections so leave is granted. Representative Pierce, you may leave the room."

Pierce: "We had...thank you. Mr. Speaker, you know we have over 70 Bills posted in Revenue and we're going to meet immediately upon adjournment, call some of the Members' Bills who are on the Committee: . . . But since inadvertently 1846 didn't get posted and I wonder if I could have leave and I've never really asked for leave before. But...to hear House Bill 1846 when it's our last day when we... when we come back immediately upon adjournment, if we could hear House Bill 1846. If I could have consent to suspend the rules. And I so move."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, if...if these Members that want leave and suspension rights would just stop by and ask me about it they could save the time of the House and save me a lot of grief. If they do that I would appreciate it."

Pierce: "I apologize. I apologize. It wasn't intentional."

Ryan: "I don't even know what the Bill is, Representative."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "I'm not sure I'm for the Bill, either, to tell you the truth but..."

Ryan: "I don't even know what it is, so I don't know whether I'm for it or against it."

Pierce: "I don't either, I may be against it myself."

Ryan: "Well, would you take it out of the record, then, maybe we both better find out."

Pierce: "...184...1846, but I don't want to deny the Member the right to have it heard. that's...."

Ryan: "I don't either but I'd like to know what you're doing, that's all, Representative."

Pierce: "Okay, 1846, then you can take a look at it."

Ryan: "So you want to hold it for a minute until I look it up?"

Pierce: "Yes."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi, Agreed Resolutions. Giorgi."

Can't see Representative Giorgi, there seems to be somebody standing between him and the....."

Giorgi: "House Resolution 195 by Yourell honors Mrs. Randle who has served 23 years as City Clerk and was just reelected. House Resolution 196 by McClain honors Jeanette Bitter, 1977 Friend of Children."

House Resolution 197 by McClain honors George Parsons of Quincy for 32 years of Supervisor. House Resolution 198 by Martin honors Pekla Peterson of Rockford on her 99th birthday. House Resolution 199 by Porter talks about a parade in Skokie. House Resolution 200 by Brady honors Father Joseph Thomas on his 25th anniversary. House Resolution 201 by Polk honors Valerie Hein at 26 years of teaching. House Resolution 202 by Polk notes Mrs. Mildred Guthrie's career. House Resolution 203 by Polk honors Mrs. Margaret Wreath. And I move for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? Question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and the motion carries, the Resolutions are adopted. Consent Calendar Third Reading, Second Day."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill...."

Speaker Redmond: "Wait a minute. Wait a minute, you have....Take that out of the record, that would take too long. Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "Mr. Speaker, I've now done what I should have done previously, is consulted with both the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader, and they have no objection to suspending the rule for this one Bill, House Bill 1846, so it can be heard by the House Revenue Committee at what we hope is its final meeting, a meeting upon adjournment today. And I so move to suspend the Rules."

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman...Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objections leave is granted. Representative Hanahan, for what purpose do you rise?"

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker, I have a Bill that I would like to be heard because I'm...I'm running out of time on this Supplemental Appropriation for Office of Education. And I...I just got a problem that if it's not moved today we've got an awful lot of school money not going to be moved....moved...."

Speaker Redmond: "What Bill is it and where is it?"

Hanahan: "House Bill 1211, it's on Second Reading and I'd like to move it to Third Reading."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan, the Order of House Bills, Second Reading, appears House Bill 1211. Mr. Clerk, will you read the Bill?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 1211. A Bill for an Act making....supplemental appropriation to the State Board of Education."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any motion with respect to the Amendment?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Second Reading of the Bill. Amendment #1 was adopted in Committee."

Speaker Redmond: "No motion with respect to it, I take it."

Clerk O'Brien: "No motion filed."

Speaker Redmond: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Amendment #2 failed in Committee. Floor Amendment #3..."

Speaker Redmond: "Who is the Sponsor of...Floor Amendment?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Anderson. Amends House Bill 1211 on page 1 by deleting lines 1 and 2..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Anderson. Representative Hanahan, are you familiar with this Amendment?"

Hanahan: "Yes, this is identical to the Committee Amendment that was offered. It is posed by the Office of Education and the Chief Sponsor and I'd move to table Amendment #3."

Speaker Redmond: "Question's on the Gentle...Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, Representative Anderson is not on the floor. I don't know where he is, he was here just a minute ago, I wish that you'd....at least let him argue on the motion to table and give him a second to get on the floor before you try and table his Amendment."

Hanahan: "Well, well..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker, the Session is...is on, I believe you called a Session to order. We are on Second Reading. I...I....the Amendment that he has offered is a bad Amendment, most Republicans voted against it in Committee...."

Ryan: "Mr. Speaker..."

Hanahan: "I could...I could just suggest that the Gentleman should be here to present his Amendment. I can't hold the Bill, that's why I asked for this Bill to be called now."

Ryan: "Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, you know..."

Hanahan: "I'll move it back to Second Reading tomorrow if you wanted... want to debate it."

Ryan: "We'll move the Bill today if you give me, you know, a couple of seconds, we'll have Anderson on the floor. Okay, here he comes now, here he comes."

Speaker Redmond: "Here comes Representative Anderson to solve the problem. Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, could we have a little order in the chamber and ask that all unauthorized personnel remove themselves from the floor?"

Speaker Redmond: "Your point is well taken. The House will come to order, unauthorized personnel leave the floor. Representative Anderson. Representative Anderson."

Anderson: "Yeah. What this Amendment does is release a request for $11,360,800 for fiscal '77 supplemental from the General Revenue and Common School Fund. It also makes a Common School Fund transfer of 65,200 from the Regional Superintendent's Salary Line Item to the Orphanage and State-Owned Housing Line Item. No increase in the Common School Fund. The request for $3,497,545 of federal funds remains unchanged. There is really no need for matching funds for this $3,000,000 from federal funds. Now, $8,000,000 of this supplemental appropriation is already in the Governor's Budget Bill for this year. This is lapsed funds and he had counted on it for this $75,000,000 grant to the Common School Fund over and above... this is new money over and above last year's appropriation. The Education Transportation Fund is now funded at 78% for the Common School. If we pass this particular Amendment Special Ed Transportation will be funded at a 100%. It's now funded at 92% for this fiscal year. Personnel is funded at 89% to School Aid Formula for the Common School. For Special Ed Personnel it's now funded at 94%. If we pass this Bill it will be funded at a 100%. So I think that Special Ed is going to have to tighten its belt just as well as the Common Schools have, so I move for the adoption of this Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, we have a state law guaranteeing our school district reimbursement that we guaranteed last year and year before and year before that, and as long as we have tried to live up to our commitments to Special Ed and to Special Ed Transportation. Now, because the Governor has vetoed, or amendatorily vetoed, some of these appropriations that I stood on the floor of this House, and even John Porter, Representative Porter commended me for the...the ability to bring to focus the exact amount of monies that we had committed by law to school districts around this state, that we, the General Assembly, the 79th General Assembly, committed to our...our citizens that if you expended that money in your school district and you provided the Special Education and the Special Education Transportation that we would reimburse you. And, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, this Amendment completely makes fatter, it makes complete hypocrisy out of law if this Amendment is now adopted...because this Amendment completely contradicts what the law of Illinois calls for, and that's the reimbursement at the levels that the law calls for on Special Ed and Special Ed Transportation. I just suggest to those Members of the General Assembly who campaigned last November saying that education was a number one priority and education was a number one commitment, that they live up to that commitment that they made to their constituents and vote 'no' on this Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? Representative Friedrich. Friedrich."

Friedrich: "I don't want to speak on this Bill, I had a...wanted to table something."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Gene Hoffman."

Hoffman, G: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, we heard a lot of rhetoric about the state living up to its responsibility. Well, let me share with the Members of this Body that this money, the supplemental appropriation money, is included in the General Distribution money that is planned for in the Governor's Budget.

It's very simple. It is very simple. Now, this particular money is...is funded, is set into a particular category of students. The eight million dollars to be used in the next fiscal year is to go to all students, special students and otherwise. All students. Now, we are not only underfunding Special Education but as you and I well know, we are not fully funding the regular State Aid Formula. Now, the question is very simple, do you want to take this money and distribute it to all the students in all the school districts in the State of Illinois or do you not? Do you want, in fact to take and hold this into one specific category and only of that class of people share? Remember, that we're underfunding both programs. Don't be fooled. Support this Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Schneider."

Schneider: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I would argue likewise that we support the Amendment only because we said for so many....so many days now, and in fact so many years, that we are facing a real problem in funding of education. If every Spring we're going to come back and try to unravel the kinds of budgeting we've tried to do to keep us consistent with the revenues and still hold pretty good to our responsibilities as educators in terms of distributing dollars, I think we're going to be wasting our time. It's a mistake to support a proposal without this Amendment. I think this Amendment gives us the federal money that does not require a match. It relieves us from the pressures of trying to always to add supplemental appropriations to programs that we cannot possibly fund. I would ask, therefore, for the adoption of the Anderson Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, this Amendment is going to save 11.3 million dollars worth of General Revenue money that is not in the Governor's Budget. And I would certainly hope the Gentleman from McHenry, if this is successful, if he's successful in putting this Bill out without the Amendment, is going to be prepared to vote and introduce the Tax Increase Bill. We, as Republicans, don't want this right now. We can't afford it."

And I would certainly urge the support of Anderson's Amendment to save about eleven million dollars in the General Revenue Fund."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Skinner."

Skinner: "Well, unfortunately it looks like my colleague from the 33rd District is speaking for Chicago more than he is speaking for his District. We're talking about 11.4 million dollars here in the supplemental request and everyone who is not from Chicago should know that Chicago's going to get 4.7 million dollars of it. And I would respectfully submit that that's a little more than Chicago's share. Henderson and Warren County, just as another example of a previous speaker's area, is going to get $6,943. Johnson-Massac County is going to get $18. Big deal. Marion County is going to get about $4,900. My own county, McHenry County, is going to get $32,000. That's not our fair share. We're one percent of the state and we should be getting at least one percent of the money. Well, it's not...it's not unusual except my colleague from the 33rd District is usually on my side in fighting Chicago when we're losing in distribution formulas. This time he's not. I would respectfully suggest to everyone who is not from Chicago, they ought to get the figures, compare how much their district is getting vis a vis Chicago and conclude as I have that this is just basically another way to funnel money into what Representative Huff referred to as a 'bottomless pit' in the Transportation Committee of last Saturday."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Mann, are you seeking recognition on this Amendment? Okay. Question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of Amendment #3 to House Bills 21...1211. Did you want to close, Representative Anderson? Representative Anderson."

Anderson: "Yeah, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the General Assembly. I would like to point out again that eight million of this eleven million dollars is already in the Governor's '78 Budget for these seventy-five million dollars of additional money he plans on putting into the schools. We are already funding this fiscal year, Special Ed Transportation at 92% whereas our regular transportation is only at 78%. The School Aid Formula we're funding is 89% whereas the Special Ed Personnel we're funding at 94%. If we don't pass this Amendment, we'll be funding both at 100% and we'll be losing eight million of the seventy-five millions. The Governor has promised new monies for schools fiscal '78. I'd appreciate your 'aye' vote."

Speaker Redmond: "Question's on the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, I rise to explain my 'no' vote. I think that Representative Hanahan has explained the position extremely well. He understands the complexities of the Bill. He realizes the damage that the Amendment would do to the Bill. I certainly think all of us ought to rise and support Tom Hanahan on this Amendment and vote 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish? All voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, I ask for a poll of the absentees."

Speaker Redmond: "Gentleman has requested a poll of the absentees."

Mr. Clerk. Hanahan. You're....I don't think you're voting."

Lechowicz: "Yeah, he's voting."

Hanahan: "Yes, I'm voting, Sir, but afterwards I'd like a verification."

Clerk O'Brien: "Catania, Deavers, Giglio, Hoxsey, Kane,...."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Hoxsey."

Hoxsey: "How...how am I recorded?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is she recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Lady is recorded as not voting."

Hoxsey: "All right, record me as voting 'aye', please."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Lady as 'aye'."

Clerk O'Brien: "Kornowicz, Kozubowski, Lauer, Luft,..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Luft, 'no'."

Clerk O'Brien: "Madison, Lynn Martin, McAvoy, McMaster, Meyer,...."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madison. Record the Gentleman as 'no'."

Clerk O'Brien: "Von Boeckman."

Speaker Redmond: "Request for a verification, Mr. Hanahan? Gentleman has requested a verification of the Affirmative Roll Call, Mr. Clerk."

Hanahan: "Well, Mr...well, Mr. Speaker, it is totally impossible to ask for a verification with the chaos that's going on on this floor and the amount of personnel...."

Speaker Redmond: "Members be in their seats or we'll chase the redcoats after you."

Hanahan: "We've got pages running up and down the floor during the verification and also some people...."

Speaker Redmond: "All unauthorized persons leave the floor. That includes the staff, the staff people leave the floor. Nobody on the floor but Members. Nobody but Members. Nobody but Members. I see some people on the floor that aren't Members and I'm going to have them... Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, I think your idea is excellent that we ought to clear the floor but certainly I don't think that we ought to take the staff off the floor. I'll be glad to make sure that we haven't got any unnecessary staff, but I don't think that we ought to take the staff off the floor. There's a lot of other people that can come off first and I wish you'd do that...."

Speaker Redmond: "You point them out and we'll see that they get off the floor. Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "That's a good point that the Minority Leader brings up and I have no objection to the staff, but if its every Member would follow the Rules of this House, they call for a Member when his name is called to stand up and rise and identify himself, I'd have no problem with the verification. But I cannot verify people in this chamber looking across fifteen people standing up when they're supposed to be in their seats according to the rules."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Von Boeckman, for what purpose do you rise?"

Von Boeckman: "How am I recorded, Mr. Chairman?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is he recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "The Gentleman is recorded as not voting."

Von Boeckman: "Record me as voting 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Re...voting 'aye'? How? Voting 'no'. Representative Meyer."

Meyer: "Please record me as 'aye', Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Record Representative Meyers as 'aye'. Representative

Van Duyne."

Van Duyne: "Please record me as voting 'no', Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Record Representative Van Duyne as 'no'. Proceed with the verification."

Clerk O'Brien: "Van Duyne is from 'aye' to 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Deavers."

Deavers: "Mr. Speaker, please record me as 'aye'."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Gentleman as 'aye'. Martin, L. Martin."

Martin, L: "Please record me as 'aye', Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Lady as 'aye'. Representative Christensen."

Christensen: "I'd like to change my vote to a 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Christensen desires to be recorded as 'no'. Proceed with the verification. What is the score now, Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk O'Brien: "86 'ayes', 82 'noes'."

Speaker Redmond: "86 'aye', 82 'no'. Everybody take their seats. I see some Members that are wandering around. I'll call them by names, we'll have the redcoats escort them. Representative Telcser."

Telcser: "Mr. Speaker, just to let you know that should the verification be a Roll Call cause this outcome to change we want to....would want to verify the 'no' votes, Sir."

Speaker Redmond: "That's okay. No. Representative Brummer, are you seeking recognition?"

Brummer: "Mr. Speaker, how am I recorded?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is he recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "The Gentleman is recorded as voting 'present'."

Brummer: "Please vote me 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Gentleman as 'no'. Proceed with the..... Representative Bowman."

Bowman: "Mr. Speaker, how am I recorded?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is he recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "The Gentleman is recorded as voting 'aye'."

Bowman: "Vote me 'no', please."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Gentleman as 'no'. Now proceed..... Representative Kane."

Kane: "Vote me 'no', please."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Gentleman 'no'. Now what's the score?"

Clerk O'Brien: "85 'ayes', 85 'noes'."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lauer. Representative Lauer. I'm glad I took Representative Hanahan's suggestion that this would only take a few minutes. Representative Lauer."

Lauer: "Mr. Speaker, how am I recorded?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is the Gentleman recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Gentleman is recorded as not voting."

Lauer: "Vote me 'aye', please."

Speaker Redmond: "Record the Gentleman as 'aye'. Proceed, Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "Abramson, Adams, Anderson..."

Speaker Redmond: "Adams, he's here. Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "If I have to raise a point of order on each Member's name as he's called to obey the rules of this House, I shall. Now the rules specifically call for the rising and identifying yourself when your name is called and I'd appreciate if the Members would so do that."

Speaker Redmond: "You are correct. Proceed. Representative Sharp."

Sharp: "Change my vote from 'yes' to 'no', please."

Speaker Redmond: "Change the Gentleman from 'yes' to 'no'. Representative McMaster."

McMaster: "Mr. Speaker, I don't believe I'm recorded, will you vote me as 'aye', please?"

Speaker Redmond: "Well, I won't vote you as 'aye' but we'll see that you're recorded as 'aye'. Now 86-86, is that correct, Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk O'Brien: "87 'ayes', 86 'noes'."

Speaker Redmond: "Well, let's proceed. He said 87-86."

Clerk O'Brien: "Sharp was from 'aye' to 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Steczo."

Steczko: "Mr. Speaker, how am I recorded?"

Speaker Redmond: "How is the Gentleman recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Gentleman is recorded as voting 'aye'."

Steczko: "Please vote me 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Change the Gentleman to 'no'. What's the score? Representative Matijeovich."

Matijeovich: "Mr. Speaker, only because we have a lull here and I talked with Representative Ryan and got his okay on this. Could I have leave to suspend the posting notice on House Bills 968, 969, 820 and 821? Those Bills are companion Bills and Appropriations Bills and I've been told that if the substantive Bill does not leave the Committee by Saturday they're dead and we can get those Bills heard in Appropriations I Committee tomorrow. So I've approved, this has been approved by both Leaders on both sides of the aisle so that those Bills may be heard tomorrow in Appropriations I Committee."

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objection, leave is granted."

Matijevec: "Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Mann."

Mann: "Mr. Speaker, similarly while we have a pause here, I would move to waive the appropriate posting rules so that House Bills 137, 138, 142, 145, 146, 149, 153 and 253 can be heard in the Real Estate Subcommittee of Judiciary I tomorrow morning at 7:30 in Room 2092 of the State Office Building. This has been cleared with the Leadership of both sides of the aisle. May I have leave, Sir?"

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any objection? Hearing none leave is granted. Representative Laurino."

Laurino: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I also have a request to have leave of the House to have a Bill heard in Elections. I move to suspend the appropriate Rule to have House Bill 757 heard in Elections tomorrow. It was just left off the posting rule and I ask for leave of the House to have that heard tomorrow."

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objections leave is granted. Representative Katz."

Laurino: "Thank you."

Katz: "Mr. Speaker, two things. First of all, House Bill 1361 was inadvertently left off of the posting list. It is not a controversial Bill and I would like to waive the appropriate rule and permit the Judiciary II Committee to hear House Bill 1361 this evening."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, have....could you give me the count....the order of business on the floor as Amendment #3 to 1211? Can you tell what...what you're trying to do today?"

Speaker Redmond: "We're trying to get the count now. He was...."

Ryan: "Well, it shouldn't be too hard to get, if you can't get one you ought to replace the Clerk...that can count."

Speaker Redmond: "Well, the Clerk...."

Ryan: "Here we are getting announcements in the...middle of a busy Roll Call, Mr. Speaker...."

Speaker Redmond: "Well...."

Ryan: "I think you're being very unfair, you ought to have your Members here if you need the votes. Let's have the announcement on the Roll Call."

Speaker Redmond: "What's the score, Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk O'Brien: "86 'ayes', 87 'noes'."

Ryan: "And then we're going to verify."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative James Houlihan."

Houlihan, J: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I was off the floor. I had voted on this on Committee and I would like to be recorded as voting 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Gentleman requests to be recorded as voting 'no'.

Gentleman has requested a verification of the Negative Roll Call. Will the Members please be in their seats? Representative Stuffle, please take your seat. Laurino. D. L. Houlihan. Sevcik. Brady. Ryan. Keats. Leinenweber. Stanley. Mahar. Please be in your seats. Senator Bartulis, either take your seat or go over to the Senate. Please take your seat. Is that Tuerk wandering around here? Take your seat...Tuerk. Take your seat, Representative Tuerk. Now will they call verification of the Negative Roll Call? Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "E. M. Barnes, Beatty, Birchler, Bowman,...."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Brady, you're too big, sit down. Representative Gene Hoffman. Gene Hoffman."

Hoffman, G: "Mr. Speaker, we'd make the same request that was made by the other side and that is, that those people's names who are called if they would please stand or raise their hand...."

Speaker Redmond: "Point is well taken. When you Members' name is called, rise and raise your hand. Face east. Proceed."

Clerk O'Brien: "Birchler, Bowman,..."

Speaker Redmond: "Bowman, rise and raise your hand. He's busy on the phone. Stand up."

Clerk O'Brien: "Bradley, Brady,..."

Speaker Redmond: "Now you may stand."

Clerk O'Brien: "Brandt, Breslin, Rich Brummer, John Brummet..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Doyle, sit down."

Clerk O'Brien: "Byers, Caldwell, Capparelli, Christensen, Darrow, Corneal Davis, Dawson, DiPrima, Domico, Doyle, John Dunn, Ewell, Farley, Flinn, Garmisa, Getty, Giorgi, Greiman, Hanahan, Harris, Hart, Dan Houlihan, Jim Houlihan, Huff, Jacobs, Jaffe, Emil Jones, Kane, Katz, Kelly, Kosinski, Laurino, Lechowicz, Leverenz, Levin, Lucco, Luft, Madigan, Madison, Mann, Marovitz, Peggy Smith Martin, Matejek..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative... Representative Keats, I've got my eye on you."

Clerk O'Brien: "Matijewich, Mautino, McClain, McGrew, McLendon, McPike, Mudd, Mulcahey, Murphy, Nardulli, O'Brien, O'Daniel, Pechous, Pierce, Pouncey, Pullen, Richmond,..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Daniels, you're violating a law. You're violating the rules."

Clerk O'Brien: "Robinson..."

Speaker Redmond: "No unauthorized persons on the floor."

Clerk O'Brien: "Robinson, Satterthwaite, Schisler, Sharp, Shumpert, Steczo, Stuffle, Taylor, Terzich, Tipword, Van Dwyne, Vitek, Von-Boeckman, Wall, Williams, Younge, Yourell, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Holewinski, for what purpose do you rise?"

Holewinski: "Mr. Speaker, will you change my 'aye' vote to 'nay', please?"

Speaker Redmond: "Change the Gentleman from 'aye' to 'nay'. Is there any questions? Representative Anderson or Hoffman or Ryan or..."

Hoffman: "Capparelli."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Capparelli here? How is he recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Gentleman is recorded as voting 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Take him off,"

Hoffman: "Is Representative Darrow on the floor?"

Speaker Redmond: "Darrow is here."

Hoffman: "Okay. Fine."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Capparelli has returned, put him back on the call."

Hoffman: "Capparelli has returned. Greiman."

Speaker Redmond: "He got a Diet Coca-Cola."

Hoffman: "Oh, I see Greiman, he turned sideways, I couldn't see him.
Leverenz."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Leverenz."

Hoffman: "Leverenz, Byers and Schisler. No, I see Gale, all right.
Taylor."

Speaker Redmond: "He'll be back in a minute I'll wager. I know where he is. How is Representative...."

Hoffman: "All right, let's...."

Speaker Redmond: "He's within earshot."

Hoffman: "All right, Representative Wall."

Speaker Redmond: "Wall? That produced Taylor."

Hoffman: "That's some production."

Speaker Redmond: "Caesarean."

Hoffman: "I think we went far afield. Wall."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Wall here? There he is."

Hoffman: "Representative Yourell."

Speaker Redmond: "Wall is here. Wall, do you seek recognition?"

Wall: "Yes, I want to change my vote from 'no' to 'aye'."

Speaker Redmond: "Change the Gentleman from 'no' to 'aye'."

Hoffman: "Yourell."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Yourell. How is he recorded?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Gentleman is recorded as voting 'no'."

Speaker Redmond: "Take him off the Roll Call until he gets here."

Hoffman: "Mr. Speaker, we have no other questions but I want to say that the verification in this type of a setting is so much easier. I think it moves so much more quickly and I believe with fewer questions. I want to compliment all the Members of the House for this particular verification, win or lose. The process was really very orderly and I'm very pleased."

Speaker Redmond: "And the Chair thanks them also. What's the score? 84 'aye', 87 'no'. The Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Amendment fails. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Amendment #4. Peters. Amends House Bill 1211, as amended, on page 1 by deleting lines 11 through 17."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Peters. Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "I'm not apprised that this Amendment has been passed out... aware that there was a fourth Amendment and I find no Amendment on this side of the aisle at all, number four."

Speaker Redmond: "Page, has it been distributed? Just handed it out."

Hanahan: "He didn't get to the Democratic side of the House yet with it."

Speaker Redmond: "No, it was just handed to the well of the House. Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker, dilatory tactics are being played and displayed. There's plenty of opportunity for people to prepare Amendments prior to debate. I...I request a ruling of the Chair that this is dilatory to await a...a...Amendment to be prepared while we're debating another Amendment just in case so they could pass a proceeding to this House. I'd like to move this Bill to Third Reading."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Telcser, for what purpose do you rise?"

Telcser: "Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, the Amendment was given to the Clerk about a half an hour ago, through no fault of the Clerk, it takes a little while to get the Amendments distributed. I... I'm sure the Gentleman realizes that a subject matter of this great import involving this many dollars is something which the Members of this House look upon with a great deal of sincerity and concern. And by no means are the Members on this side of the aisle acting in a dilatory, irresponsible manner. I don't think I've seen a Session of this Legislature where the expenditure of this amount of money isn't taken seriously by the Members of the House. The Amendment which has been placed on the Clerk's desk sometime ago was a sincere one and it's an honest effort to address oneself to this budget Bill. And I...it's not a dilatory tactic, Representative, and I think your Bill should be held on Second Reading until the Amendment can be distributed and we could debate the Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker, to expedite things, I move to suspend the necessary rule to have this Amendment considered without it being printed on every Members' desk."

Speaker Redmond: "You've heard the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor say 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it."

Hanahan: "Well, Mr. Speaker...."

Speaker Redmond: "Read the Amendment, read the Amendment, Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "Amendment #4. Amends House Bill 1211, as amended, on page 1 by deleting lines 11 through 17."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Peters."

Peters: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, what this Amendment does is to reduce this total appropriation by $100,000 in the area of support for Energy Conservation Workshops. It is the opinion of staff, after having gone over this particular budget, that there is sufficient funds within the $13,000,000 as is now ....has been now approved in a sense by the fact the Amendment has not been defeated to absorb these costs. And secondly, the Division of Energy within the Department itself will be receiving adequate funds from the federal government to satisfy these particular needs. I respectfully.....I respectfully request your support of the Amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Amendment. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Vote 'aye'.....opposed vote 'no'."

Peters: "All right. Thank you for the support, Representative Hanahan."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish? All voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's a 139....140 'aye' and 1 'no'. The Gentleman's motion carries and the motion's adopted. Any further motions?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Third Reading. Now any announcements? Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, on Third Reading is House Bill 1393, with leave I'd like to bring it back to Second Reading for the purpose of an Amendment. The Amendment has been distributed."

Speaker Redmond: "The Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objections, return it to the Order of Second Reading. 1...not 393, was that?"

Lechowicz: "1393."

Speaker Redmond: "1393."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, Amendment #1 to House Bill 1393 is a corrective Amendment. The Bill as it was presented to the Clerk did not have the effective date of the Act. And the Amendment....amends Section 2, it says, 'this Amendatory Act takes effect upon its becoming law'. And I move for adoption of Amendment #1 to House Bill 1393."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? Question's on the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor say 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and the motion carries and the Amendment's adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Third Reading. Announcements. Representative Katz."

Katz: "Mr. Speaker, a few minutes ago in the middle of the debate, we..."

I got up and made a motion with regards to being able to hear House Bill 1361. It was inadvertently left off of the posting announcement for Judiciary II. It is not a controversial Bill. It was totally inadvertent and I ask leave of the House to suspend the appropriate rule so that we might hear House Bill 1361 this evening. May I have leave, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Representative Ryan, I don't ...comprehend the gesture."

Ryan: "...It..."

Katz: "Okay. It is a Bill having to do with permitting counties to collect back monies spent for public defenders in the case of people whom it is later discovered in fact had the financial ability to be able to provide their own counsel. It really is not a controversial or partisan matter."

Ryan: "Well, I'm sure of that, Representative Katz, you wouldn't be involved in anything like that. But it...certainly all right with me but it would..."

Katz: "It's not my Bill and it...."

Ryan: "I have no objection."

Speaker Redmond: "Hearing no objection leave is granted. Representative Sharp."

Sharp: "Yeah, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, the Elementary and Secondary Education Committee will meet again this evening at 6 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the Committee, so if you want your Bill heard, we urge you to come this evening."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Tipword."

Tipword: "Mr. Speaker, the Insurance Committee will continue its recessed meeting of today immediately after adjournment of this House here on the House floor. We had announced that it would be in 122-B but Cities and Villages will be meeting there tonight. So immediately upon adjournment the Insurance Committee Members are requested to stay here on the House floor and we will hear all of the rest of the Bills. This is the last meeting of the Insurance Committee. We need a quorum and we'll need the Sponsors here.

Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kent."

Kent: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of an announcement."

Speaker Redmond: "Proceed."

Kent: "All Republican Members of the Executive Committee please meet in Room 300 immediately following adjournment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Waddell."

Waddell: "Mr. Speaker, for the purposes of an announcement, the Annual Report of the Data Informations Systems Commissions for the years 1976 and 77 have been distributed to the General Assembly."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Taylor."

Taylor: "Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, Committee on Cities and Villages will meet in its recessed meeting immediately after adjournment in Room 122-B. There are about five Bills and I wish every Member would be on time."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "The House Revenue Committee will meet immediately upon adjournment in Room 118. We hope it's our last meeting but the point is to get the Members there immediately upon adjournment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Yourell."

Yourell: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I would ask leave to be recorded as having voted 'no' on Amendment #1 to...."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative...."

Yourell: "...22, it will not change the outcome. I was here just at the conclusion of the verification."

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Hearing none leave is granted. Representative Capparelli."

Capparelli: "Just to remind all the Members of the Executive Committee, we'll be meeting in D-1 at 6 o'clock."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Katz."

Katz: "The recessed meeting of Judiciary II will reconvene immediately upon adjournment and we will continue until 9 o'clock tonight. It is the hope that we can dispose of all of the Bills remaining in Judiciary II. While the meeting was tentatively scheduled for Saturday, Members should not assume it will be held on Saturday. They should be there this evening with their Bills to be heard between now and 9 o'clock tonight so that all of the matters involving Judiciary II can be concluded immediately upon adjournment and by the time the Committee adjourns at 9 o'clock tonight. Room 114 in the Capitol Building."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Laurino."

Laurino: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the Elections Committee will meet promptly at 8 a.m. tomorrow morning in Room D-1. The primary date change Bills will be the first one considered and they will be heard simultaneously at 8 o'clock so I would hope that all the Sponsors would be there on time."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Campbell."

Campbell: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I ask unanimous consent to have my name removed as the Cosponsor of House Bill 788."

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Hearing none leave is granted. Representative Pierce."

Pierce: "Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1238 was also inadvertently left off the posting for the Revenue Committee today. I believe there's a consultation between the Leaders and I would like leave to suspend the rules to hear House Bill 1238....immed....Revenue Committee meets upon adjournment."

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objections leave is granted. Representative McLendon."

McLendon: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, the announcement that the final meeting of Personnel and Pensions will take place in Room D-1 tomorrow at noon. We have about 30 Bills to dispose of and we will be finished.....time."

Speaker Redmond: "Any further announcements? Representative Ryan, do you have an announcement? That conference, is that what Representative....."

Ryan: "We've decided to hold that tomorrow, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madigan. Caldwell, pardon me."

Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, I would like unanimous consent to be removed as

~~The Chief Sponsor of House Bill 1691.~~"

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any objection?"

Caldwell: "1692, I'm sorry."

Speaker Redmond: "16....Any objection? Hearing none leave is granted.

Caldwell: "And Representative Collins:.....).be named Chief Sponsor."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Madigan. Representative Collins will do what?"

Caldwell: "He'll be the Chief Sponsor."

Speaker Redmond: "Okay. Representative Collins Chief Sponsor. Representative Madison."

Madison: "Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to be removed as the Chief Sponsor of House Bill 1645 and to be replaced by Representative Phil Collins."

Speaker Redmond: "Does he have leave? Hearing no objections leave is granted. Representative Bowman. Representative Telcser, take your seat. You're bothering one of the Members. Representative Bowman."

Bowman: "I ask leave of the House to be removed as the Chief Sponsor of 1850. Do I have leave?"

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objection leave is granted."

Bowman: "Thank you. House Bill 1850."

Speaker Redmond: "Will you repeat the number?"

Bowman: "It's just going to lie on the table. I want to get out. Okay."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative...."

Bowman: "Move to table then."

Speaker Redmond: "Could you repeat..."

Bowman: "Oh, I was informed that it would be impossible to...to do this because there is no other Sponsor so I move to table."

Speaker Redmond: "Gentleman has moved to ask leave to table the Bill. Any objection? Hearing none leave is granted. Representative Madigan."

Madigan: "Mr. Speaker, our intent at this time is to adjourn and to provide for a meeting of the Executive Committee to convene at 7 o'clock tonight and for all other Committees that were scheduled to meet today to convene at 6 o'clock. Therefore, the Elementary and Secondary Education Committee and the Revenue Committee and the City and Villages Committee and any other Committee that met this morning which wishes to meet tonight will convene at 6 o'clock. And then the Executive Committee will convene at 7 o'clock. And are there any announcements...."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Mann, are you seeking recognition?"

Mann: "Not to...not to interrupt the Gentleman from Marquette Park. I have no other...the Majority Leader...were you, were you finished, Sir, I didn't know whether you were finished...Oh, yeah. Just to say that Judiciary I will be meeting at 8 a.m. tomorrow morning, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Question's on the Gentleman's motion that we adjourn after the Perfunctory Session. All those in favor indicate by saying 'aye', 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. Stand adjourned until 4 o'clock tomorrow."

Clerk O'Brien: "Introduction and First Reading. House Bill 2376.
